Cood Court Day.

Although Monday was a good day for the farmers to do much work at home, yet a large number of them came to town, and the day was a good one in a business way. The annual horse show drew the crowd, and it was considered the best in recent years. Many fine animals were on exhibition, and the show was greatly enjoyed. It was said that more fine horses were shown than have been here in many years, which goes to show the interest being taken in the horse raising incus

Fame and Many Dollars.

While in Danville, Friday, the Edi wall paper merchant, and, during the conversation we learned of an inven tion he has just perfected, which will not only bring fame, but many dollars to the clever gentleman. When the big orchestrian was placed in the skat ing rink, just opened in Danville, Mr Gibbons was greatly interested in up the land, A recent official report on the machine, and carefully watched the putting in place of every part of the blg instrument. Realizing what a drawing card such an instrument is. he at once set to work to think out something on the same order which would outclass the mechanical piano.

Mr Gibbons, as his friends are aware, is a great financier of cats, and raises two or three different breeds, in which he takes great pride. He has given much attention to the volces of the different felines, and, being blessed with a good ear for harmony, has on several occasions gotten together a number of his pets which would make dairymen forget the important rela compared with other branches of farm made with a key board like that of a ing and live stock husbandry, I wish to with extend back into a regular piano ly made public by the Ohio experiment case. Here he has arranged a row of station. According to these figures, cats, ranging from an immense old Tom down to a small kitten. The rods are attached to grippers which are fastened to the cats' tails. Upon press tility, that is, removes it from the farm, as he would sell in $80 worth of butter.
